Hillel at Ohio University provides opportunities for Jewish students to explore and celebrate their Jewish identity. Hillel’s mission is to enrich the lives of Jewish students so that they may enrich the Jewish people and the world. Hillel creates a pluralistic, welcoming and inclusive environment that encourages Jewish college students to grow intellectually, spiritually, and socially.

- $2,500
 - Sponsor a famous Jewish author or artist to visit Hillel at Ohio University and speak to our Jewish students.
 - Support Hillel by offering students alternative models for exploring Shabbat celebrations.
- $1,000
 - Sponsor a student intern at Hillel for a full year which enables us to reach hundreds of new students.
 - Sponsor a whole year of Lunch and Learn, at which rabbis, university professors, and students discuss Jewish topics over a Hillel sponsored meal.
- $500
 - Send Jewish students to national leadership conferences on social justice, the arts, and Israel advocacy.
 - Bring speakers, films, and innovative programs to campus that connect students to the relevance of the Holocaust and Yom HaShoah.
- $360
 - Adopt-a-BBQ, allowing Jewish students to enjoy a free BBQ on Hillel’s patio!
 - Support Sunday morning brunch, a popular tradition at Hillel at OU!
- $100
 - Help create new student groups, such as a FYSH (First Year Students of Hillel), a Jewish Women’s Forum, or a Sculpture and Mural Club.
 - Provide funds to promote taglit-birthright israel and help send OU students to Israel for the first time!
